

James Stewart De Mond

Born on January 4, 1924 in the home of his grandfather, Frederick W. Steward, MD in Coldwater, MI is a 5th generation Freemason on both sides of his family dating back to the Grand Lodge of Scotland and the Grand Lodge National Française in France. The sword utilized by Commander Pond for the installation is on loan from his father-in-law James De Mond and which sword belonged to his father Raymond John De Mond who was knighted in 1922 in Havana, IL.

SK De Mond matriculated at Michigan State College in 1942, leaving shortly thereafter to serve in the European Theater of operations (photo left above). He returned to MSC to graduate in 1948 and continued studies in the graduate school. Following with a 26 year career in transportation, he then left his position as a director to accept a position as Executive Director of the Scottish Rite Valley. He married Patricia Ann Bullis of Hudson, MI on September 4, 1948—The celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary in 2013 with the joyous reception of their family members pictured below.
